

The Rock and Pit

Look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

Isa 51:1

The Results of Christ's Sacrifice, From him flow all the benefits, continued.

Further, the power to become children of God; sanctification; participation in Christ's death; the dying to sin; the being crucified to the world; the cleansing and washing away of sins by being sprinkled with the blood of Christ; walking in the spirit and in the newness of life;

[And more] the imitation of Christ; increased freedom from the curse of the law; ... redemption from the power of Satan; victory over the world; deliverance from death and from the fear of death; escape from judgment;

[And] finally,
the resurrection of the last day; ascension; glorification;
the heavenly inheritance of faith... the new heaven and new earth; and the restoration of all things.
